PROFILE

Software developer with a business background and several years of hands-on experience with React, Next.js, Node.js and Django. Since 2022, I have been delivering open-source solutions for SMEs as a freelancer, from concept to self-hosted operation. I am currently training as a Full-Stack & DevSecOps Engineer, combining technical skills with experience in sales and business development. Alongside that I run a local AI lab on two RTX 4090s: open-weight models served with Ollama, vLLM and llama.cpp, plus a self-hosted agent for automation - which keeps data in my own network.
